

Calcium Readings in mg/L
Miskwabi Area Community Association

June 21, 2021

LONG LAKE

16
15
14
13
12
11
4 to 10
3
2
1
2000	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20

Note: 2017 not recorded

Calcium is required by all species.
 Absolutely necessary for aquatic ecosystems.

Water fleas (zooplankton) are intergal to lake systems.

They feed on algae and provide food for fish and Invertebrates.

Low calcium levels (below 1.5) = decline in Zooplankton.

10% of 49 lakes tested in Haliburton County have less than 1.5.

MISKWABI LAKE

16
15
14
13
12
11
10
4 to 9
3
2
1
2000	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20

Note: 2017 not recorded

No sampling done

NEGAUNEE LAKE

22
21
20
19
4 to 18
3
2
1
2000	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20

WENONA LAKE

16
15
14
13
12
11
4 to 10
3
2
1
2000	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20